LUCK'S POST CARD.

Off to the Fishing ground. For many years Lowestoft has been the centre of a portion of the large fishing fleet which ply their calling in the North Sea. The herring and mackerel are caught near the surface of the sea by the class of boat known as "Drifters"; other fish such as whiting, plaice, soles, etc., which frequent the sea-bottom, are caught by the "Trawlers." The busiest time is from Sept. to Xmas.

Weather lovely here
this afternoon.
Fog all way across London
to Ipswich, after that it was clear. Jack has given me this p.c. Daisy met me at Station.
Surrey is very quaint.
Have had a lovely tea -
Ernest.
